

DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

The Orange Line Development Authority is a joint exercise of powers authority created by cities along the Orangeline corridor that have executed the Orange Line Development Authority Joint Exercise of Powers Agreement. The authority of two or more public agencies to enter into a Joint Exercise of Powers Agreement is provided under the Joint Exercise of Powers Act of the State of California, California Government Code Sections 6500-6599.2, inclusive, as it now exists or may hereafter be amended.

The purpose of the Authority is to pursue its stated objective to use the common powers of its Members to enter into one or more public-private partnerships to finance, acquire, design, construct, reconstruct, improve, and operate the facilities and improvements to the Orangeline as may be approved by action of the Authority.

“Orangeline” means a high-speed ground transportation service that is provided by an advanced technology, elevated, magnetically levitated (“Maglev”) ground transportation system for moving people and cargo, and comprised of passenger and cargo vehicles, elevated guideways and support columns, power distribution system, vehicle control systems, stations, maintenance and operation center, and related facilities.

The Authority holds its regularly scheduled monthly meetings on the second Wednesday of the month in the City of Cerritos.

The Authority’s address is:

Orange Line Development Authority
16401 Paramount Boulevard
Paramount, California 90723
Phone: 310.871.1113 (Direct)
Phone: 562.663.6850
Fax: 562.634.8216

As of May 12, 2004 the following cities are member agencies of the Orange Line Development Authority:

Artesia
Bellflower
Cudahy
Huntington Park
Maywood
Paramount
Vernon

Bell
Cerritos
Downey
Los Alamitos
Palmdale
South Gate

A number of additional cities along the Orangeline corridor have taken actions in support of the Orangeline Corridor Development Project. Some may consider becoming active members of the Authority at some time in the future. They include:

Buena Park
Cypress
Huntington Beach
La Palma
Long Beach
Los Angeles
Stanton

The Gateway Cities Council of Governments supports the Orangeline, as does the Southern California Association of Governments, which has included the Orangeline in the currently adopted, 2004 Regional Transportation Plan

For further information about the Orangeline, please call: Albert Perdon at 310.871.1113.